According to rule 1 of the Rules relating to the Regional Language Examinations of Government Officers printed in Chapter I, Section II of the Manual of Departmental and language Examinations Rules, the next Regional Language Examinations are due to be held on the first Monday of January 1952. General electionsto Parliament and the State Ligislatures will be held early in that month, and the services of almost all Govt. servants will be required for election duty for several days during the month. Several officers may therefore not find it convenient to appear in the month of January owing to preoccuption with work arising from the elections. It would, therefore, seem desirable to postpone the examinations to the first week of February 1952. The Commission may accordingly be authorised to hold the examinations on the first Monday in February as a special case. Very early orders are requested.
